Santiago Fernández

has successfully completed the online Specialization

Think like a CFO

The Think like a CFO Specialization enables students to understand the language of finance. They gain a firm understanding in Accountability, Operational Finance and Corporate Finance. With this specialization, the student will be able to develop a diagnosis and action plan to resolve a company's financing dilemmas. It gives the student the necessary skills to understand basic concepts and feel comfortable reading, interpreting and discussing financial statements for decision making and he will understand the key financial issues related to companies, investors, and the interaction between them in the capital markets. When you complete the Specialization, you'll be able to better understand both business financial problems to make better decisions and your own personal financial decisions
